

276 Years of Jordan Family History (1742 to 2018)

•Introduction• The Jordans: Moving Westward

By C. Richard Hulquist.

They came from England to the American east coast. Their descendants moved on to Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska, California, back to England, to New York, Washington D. C., Oregon, Saipan, Guam (both U S Territories), Germany, Turkey, California, and Washington. Who knows where some of them will move next?

Jordan family oral history often related that John Jordan (father of Asa Shinn Jordan) had come to the U.S. from England in 1792. But more recent evidence shows that he was born in Pennsylvania (PA) in 1772. And his Father, who I will call John Jordan, Sr., also was born in PA, in 1742. I could not confirm any data about the father of John Sr.

The disparity of the migration timing might be related to an item uncovered by a relative, Robert Jordan, a former senior editor for the National Geographic. Robert found in a history of Ohio an entry about Caleb Jordan's father who appeared to be an ancestor of ours.

The article stated that Caleb Jordan's father "...was John Jordan, who is said to have been kidnapped in England thirty or forty years prior to the Revolutionary War [sic] and brought to America when a boy 11 years of age, he was bound to a man in N.Y. to work a number of years, when his time of servitude had expired he moved to Maryland and secured a house and married and raised a family, he lived to see this new country free of England...he died at the remarkable age of 105 years."

We have DNA evidence that our Jordan ancestors did originate in England from where so many English migrated to America. For example, Bonded Passengers to America by Peter Wilson Coldham (1983) notes that by 1776 England had sent more than 40,000 prison inmates to the colonies (a huge number for that time), often as indentured servants. But I wasn't able to confirm any data about Caleb Jordan or his father, John. Maybe a younger family member will explore this further!

The Jordans multiplied and gradually moved westward. They all moved to Ohio when the Indian wars were over after 1800. They obtained land in Muskingum County, Ohio, an area that had seen much of the fighting. John Jr. had 16 children between his two wives, Martha and Orpha. Martha died after the birth of their son, John (and there are other Johns in the family). Inez Jordan visited their farm years later and noted that the land was hilly and rough.

John Jr.'s son, Asa Shin Jordan, was in the Union Army during the Civil War, and the following genealogy contains some wartime letters to and from Asa Jordan while he served in General Sherman's Army on its march to Atlanta. Asa is also described in a National Geographic book by Robert Jordan.

Asa Jordan's daughter, Orpha, married William Leasure, and they traveled from Ohio by train to eastern NE, then southwest by oxcart [oral report from Inez Jordan Hulquist] to homestead near Keane, a stage line station. William drove the stagecoach from Keane to Arapahoe, NE, from where it went on to Denver. William was sometimes gone for days and Orpha had to run the farm. She was once alone for several days with an abscessed tooth during a blizzard.

The Leasures enlarged their house to contain a small store. Orpha became the first postmistress in the area. When a new town called Wilcox was started nearby in 1886, they moved to it and started the first store in Wilcox. They did well and later moved to Long Beach, CA, to retire about 1908.

Asa Jordan's Son, Israel Hiram Jordan (I H), born 1860, migrated from Ohio to the western plains near Wallace, NE, to homestead. He met a young schoolteacher there named Ida Eunice Messenger from Iowa. Ida was born in Bellevue, NY, in 1863 and her family moved to Iowa to try farming.

Ida Messenger became a teacher moved with friends to Wallace, NE, where she taught school. Near their homestead they saw a man working in the rain to fix the roof of his sod shack, and they stopped to help him.

The man was I H Jordan. He fell in love with Ida at first sight and wooed her until they finally were married. They later moved to a good farm near Wilcox where Orpha and Wm. Leasure ran their store. This likely was in the 1890s when drought and very low grain prices had caused many farmers to leave the plains. Real estate prices had been driven down and likely helped the Jordans to buy such good farmland.

I H and Ida Jordan reared six children near Wilcox. He was interested in horse racing and had a quarter mile track on their farm [Inez]. He later dealt in real estate and banking in Wilcox. They moved to Long Beach, CA, in 1922 where I H ran his own real estate office until his death.

Their daughter Inez Jordan was born in 1893. She went to the Omaha Methodist College of Nursing, but was soon called back to Wilcox to help manage the family when her mother, Ida, became ill. She also taught in a one-room schoolhouse near Wilcox and later became a practical nurse.

Inez married Ferdinand Hulquist of Wilcox in 1916. I H Jordan made Ferd quit riding a motorcycle and quit smoking cigarettes before he could marry Inez. Inez and Ferd were avid family historians and provided many of the photos in Jordan genealogy.

XXX

This family summary has necessarily concentrated on the earlier Jordans, and to later ones that I knew best. Some other Jordan descendants may have resided even further west and east. I'm sure there are other Jordan descendants with very interesting stories.

I have included some photos here in addition to those in the genealogy that will follow.

Honor Hulquists Golden Wedding

WILCOX—Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Hulquist held open house Wednesday afternoon and evening honoring Mrs. Hulquist's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan of Long Beach, Calif. Their golden wedding will be November 7.

The Hulquist home was decorated with bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums and pink and yellow roses arranged by Miss Delia Wedean. They were brought by Miss Wedean and Mrs. Stanley Long from Grand Island. Mrs. C. E. Lantz of Hildreth and Mrs. F. H. Romig presided at the refreshment table. The table decorations and refreshments were in keeping with the occasion. Mrs. George Karshner had charge of the guest book in which 70 names were recorded.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, who spent much of their married life in Wilcox, were presented with a gift from their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan left Friday from Kearney for Long Beach. After a 3-week visit at the Hulquist and H. H. Jordan homes.

One of the finest social affairs, Wilcox people have had the pleasure of attending in some time was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Hulquist, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, when they held open house honoring Mrs. Hulquist's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan of Long Beach, California, whose golden wedding anniversary occurred on Monday November 7. The Hulquist home was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of lovely yellow chrysanthemums and pink and yellow roses arranged by Miss Delia Wedean, that she and Mrs. Stanley Long brought with them from Grand Island. Mrs. C. E. Lantz and Mrs. F. H. Romig presiding at the table, served the guests with lunch, ice cream, cake and coffee. Table decorations and refreshments were in keeping with the occasion. Mrs. George Karshner had charge of the guest book in which were written seventy names. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan, lived a good part of their married life in Wilcox where they are held in the brightest esteem. They were presented with a gift as a token of friendship. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan left Friday, from Kearney for their home in Long Beach California, after a three weeks visit at Wilcox.

I.H. JORDAN'S SALE SATURDAY

The Herald printed public sale bills for I. H. Jordan the latter part of last week, advertising his sale which will be held next Saturday, January 3rd.

Mr. Jordan sold his farm some time ago, having decided to move to town, and will sell all his farm implements and livestock. Chas. Olson will cry the sale and Wm. Jordan will act as clerk. Sale will commence immediately following a free lunch at 12:00 o'clock.

While undecided as to what city they will remove to, Lincoln will probably be their choice on account of the education facilities afforded by the capital city. We look forward with regrets to the date of departure of this family who have so long been residents of this community.

JORDAN—Israel H. Jordan, 87, of 1054 Alamos Ave., died March 13 at his home. A native of Nebraska, he lived at Wilcox, Neb., prior to coming to Long Beach in 1922. He was actively engaged in the real estate business at 1215 E. 10th St. until three months ago. He was a member of the Methodist Church at Wilcox. Last fall he and his wife celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary. Surviving are Mrs. Inez M.; daughters, Miss Mae Jordan of Covina, Mrs. Grace MacKey of Long Beach; sons, Harry and William Jordan; and eight great-grandchildren. Service will be held Friday at 1 p. m. in the chapel of Patterson & Snively Mortuary, with Dr. George W. McDonald of First Methodist Church officiating. Entombment will be in Sunnyside Mausoleum.

Obituary Of Mrs. Ida Jordan

Ida Messenger Jordan was born in Bellview, New York, October 6, 1868. When only a young child she moved with her parents to Iowa and Missouri. She attended Chillicothe Business College and with a brother homesteaded in Frontier County, Nebr. Here she taught school and met and married Israel H. Jordan, November 7, 1888.

To this union were born seven children, the oldest son and the youngest daughter preceded her in death. The other five children were all present at the time of her death: Harry and William Jordan and Grace MacKey, all of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Inez Hulquist of Wilcox, Nebr.; Mrs. Mae Edwards of Fullerton, Calif. Besides her five children, she also leaves eleven grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Jordan's husband died nine years ago to the day of her death, March 13, 1947, in Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan were residents of Wilcox from 1893 until 1923 when they moved to Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Jordan still resided in the home they had lived in from the time they first moved there. She was a former member of the Methodist Church of Wilcox.

Funeral services were held at Patterson and Snively's Chapel, Saturday, March 16, 1957, at 1:00 p. m., with Reverend Mr. Geer of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach, in charge. George Hansford was organist and sang, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "In The Garden." Interment was at Sunnyside Mausoleum, Long Beach.

She was sweet, kind and lovely and never spoke unkindly of anyone and will always be remembered as a precious, darling Mother.

The object of this organization is to advance the business of the state and especially this town. This is the organization that sent the advertising train east last fall which all of the readers of the HERALD remember.

RUSSIAN CORN.
Comm. Hill is very anxious to obtain a car load of corn to be shipped next week. Shall it be said of wallace farmers that they refused to give a few bushels of corn?

OVERLOADED
We have too many Overcoats Duck Coats, Blankets and woolen hose to carry and will sell at wholesale prices to reduce them.

J. BRADEN & CO.

A CALL
Just a word to the people of wallace and vicinity. We are making customs and forming habits in this newly settled community. We ought so build, as we pray, the kingdom of God on earth as in heaven. Let us rally to the God of our fathers. A meeting is now in progress, and, though held in the Methodist Episcopal Church is held in the interest of no one denomination of Christians. The object is to get the people nearer to Christ and his words, whose words are one day to shape our constitution, statutes and political economy as well as our religion. His words solve the social questions of the day.

Now I make this call to urge you to come. Catholic and Protestant, Atheist and Sceptic. All men of all classes have more at stake in the questions of life and death and immortality than anywhere else. Then, when opportunity has come even at the cost of inconvenience, come to these gatherings where these questions are discussed. Come even if you are "tired". Put aside secondary things and let us consider the first things.

Yours in love,
W. E. HARDAWAY.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India medicine the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, giving this paper. W. A. NOYES, 821 Powers Block, Rochester N. Y. (N. Y. N.)

Do you know that one bottle of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will change a dark, greasy oily looking complexion to a clear, transparent skin? The secret of this great change is that it operates so successfully on the liver and kidneys. Sold and warranted by L. A. Van Tilborg.

Oh! how I dislike to see my hair getting so gray. Say, do you know that 75 cents invested in one bottle of Beggs' Hair Renewer will not only restore the color but give it a rich, glossy appearance? Try one bottle. Sold and warranted by L. A. Van Tilborg.

Beggs' German Salvo is giving wonderful satisfaction wherever used. No family can afford to be without it. Sold and warranted by L. A. Van Tilborg.

How fearful those blotches look on your face! Are you aware that one bottle of Beggs' Blood Purifier and

THE FIGURE 9

The figure 9 in our dates will make a long stay No man or woman now living will have a document without using the figure 9. It was in the third place in 1860, where it will remain for years and then move up to second place in law where it will rest for a hundred years.

There is another "9" which has also come to stay. It is unlike the figure 9 in our dates in the respect that it has already moved up to first place, where it will permanently remain. It is called the "No. 9" High Arm Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. The "No. 9" was endorsed for first place by the experts of Europe at the Paris Exposition of 1889, where, after a severe contest with the leading machines of the world, it was awarded the only Grand prize given to family sewing machines, all others on exhibit having received lower awards of gold medals, etc. The French Government also recognized its superiority by the decoration of Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the company, with the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

The "No. 9" is not an old machine improved upon, but is an entirely new machine, and the Grand Prize at Paris was awarded it as the grand advance in sewing machine mechanism of the age. Those who buy it can rest assured, therefore, of having the very latest and best.

JORDAN-HULQUIST

At the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Jordan, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Inez Genevieve to Mr. Ferdinand V. Hulquist on June 1, 1916 at five o'clock p. m.

The wedding was a beautiful but simple home affair with only the relatives and a few nearest friends present. The spacious home was beautifully decorated with ferns and smilax.

After the guests had assembled, the Misses Beulah and Roma Rush of Lincoln sang, "I Love You Truly," and as the strains of Lohengrins' "Bridal Chorus," played by Miss Hypatia Burford reverberated through the house the bride party descended the winding stairway and took their places under a beautiful canopy of smilax and bells filled with roses, where the Rev. A. A. King used the Methodist Episcopal service with the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride was dressed in a dainty gown of white net trimmed with bands of taffeta ribbon, a bridal veil of silk illusion and orange blossoms adorning the hair. The groom wore the conventional black.

After congratulations the guests assembled in the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served by Mrs. George Bahr as chief, assisted by the Misses Hallie Immel, Hypatia Burford and Roma Rush. The center piece was of smilax twined around a basket of yellow roses.

The bride's going away gown was a dove colored silk poplin suit with white leghorn hat, white shoes and gloves. The bride threw her bouquet and it was captured by both Miss Roma Rush and Miss Hallie Immel. Immediately afterward the happy couple departed for a short honeymoon to Kansas City, Excelsior Springs and other interesting points after which they will be at home to their many friends in a neat little home the groom has prepared across from the city park.

Besides the immediate relatives of both contracting parties, the following witnessed the ceremony: Mr. and Mrs. S. Erickson of Atwell, Mrs. O. H. Meyers of Alma, the Misses Beulah and Roma Rush of Lincoln, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Burford and Hypatia and Haydn and Rev. and Mrs. A. A. King.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hulquist are well and favorably known in this community, the former being rural mail carrier on route three and proprietor of the Gay Theatre and both graduated from the Wilcox high school.

Mrs. Hulquist has been active both in church and Sunday School work and is a member of the Rebekah lodge of which she is now Noble Grand.

The Herald joins with the many friends in offering the best of wishes to them for a long and happy wedded life.

OBITUARY

Ralph M. Jordan was born at Wallace, Nebr., November 23, 1889, and passed away at Beatrice, Nebr., March 21, 1941, at the age of 51 years.

He came with his parents to Wilcox, Nebr., at the age of four, where he grew and spent a number of years on the farm west of town, taking part in its activities.

During his life time he was interested in the work of the church and attended as his health permitted. He also spent much time in reading and studying the Bible.

One sister died in infancy. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Jordan, one brother William, and two sisters, May Jordan and Grace McKay, all of Long Beach, Calif., one brother, Harry, and one sister, Inez Hulquist, of Wilcox.

Brief services were held at the F. V. Hulquist home at 1:30 p. m., Sunday afternoon, March 23rd, with Rev. Leach officiating. Burial was in the Wilcox cemetery in charge of Zulauf's Funeral Service.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends for this kind expression of sympathy, through beautiful flowers, songs and helpful assistance given during the burial of our son and brother Ralph. With sincere appreciation.

Obituary.

Winifred Janet Jordan was born July 20, 1910, and died June 17, 1912, aged 1 year, 10 months 27 days. This was the youngest child of Mr. and Mr. A. H. Jordan, who are among the best known and most highly esteemed residents of Wilcox. Little Winifred was an unusually winsome and lovable child, and will be sadly missed from home. Her death was caused by swallowing a number of match-tips. Everything that the best medical skill could do was tried for her relief, but unavailingly. The funeral was held at the Methodist Church of this place on Wednesday afternoon, and was very largely attended, the church, including the side rooms, being filled almost to its utmost capacity. The floral decorations were beautiful beyond description, and the whole service as tender and comforting as anything of the sort could be. The bereaved family have the sympathy and condolences of a multitude of friends.

Some one has gone from this strange world of ours,

No more to gather its thorns with its flowers;
No more to linger where sunbeams must fade.
Where on all beauty death's fingers are laid;
Weary with mingling life's bitter and sweet,
Weary with parting and never to meet,
Some one has gone to the bright golden shore;
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!

Some one is resting from sorrow and sin,
Happy where earth's conflicts enter not in—
Joyous as birds when the morning is bright,
When the sweet sunbeams have brought us their light.

Weary with sowing and never to reap,
Weary with labor, and welcoming sleep,
Some one's departed to heaven's bright shore;
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!

Angels were anxiously longing to meet
One who walks with them in heaven's bright street;
Loved ones have whispered that some one is blest.

Free from earth's trials and taking sweet rest,
Here is one more in angelic bliss,— cherish, one less to kiss;

Some one's departed to heaven's bright shore;
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!
Ring the bell softly, there's crape on the door!

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd:
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art
with me; Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou
annointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MEMORIES OF MY BROTHER BILL
by Inez Jordan Hulquist

There is no absolute death as long as there are memories. These are the memories I have of my dear brother Bill.

Billy was born November 13, 1897. I was 4 years old the next December 17. I can remember the day Billy was born. The quilt hanging over the east windows in my mother's bedroom to keep the light and sunlight out of her eyes. It was thought that something harmful in those days to a new mother's eyes if they had too much or any sunlight in their eyes. My first look at the new baby lying in a bed made up for him in the big wooden rocking chair. When he could get around on his own, crawling, I was assigned the duty of always looking after my little brother Billy. About his name there was no question, as our father, being a staunch Republican and a great admirer and supporter of at that time U. S. President William McKinley, so the 3rd Jordan son was named William McKinley Jordan.

Several times I ran after Billy just as he was crawling out to the alley. When he could walk I ran after him up through town to a house north of the park and just caught him as he was about to ring the doorbell. It was then the Shelter home.

After we moved to the farm 1/2 mile west of town, (Mae was born in the home in town in 1900) Mother had to put her foot down saying, "We are not going to live in town with 3 boys with nothing to do but get into trouble. We have to move to a farm"! So Dad looked around but he wasn't at all anxious to live on a farm. He finally found this 160 acres and only 1/2 mile from town. The people who had bought it gave up and went east again. For the rest of the payment they owed (Dad could buy it), these former owners had planted 2 long rows of mulberry trees about 1 block south of the road. We were told they had wanted to grow caterpillars and make silk worms and finally silk!!

I was 12 years old when Grace was born and old enough to help mother. One duty was washing the dishes after supper and often Billy was to help by drying the dishes. We played around pushing each other and scrapping. Once when Billy came after me I jumped aside and he fell, striking his front teeth against the stove and broke his front teeth. It was bad but why was I to blame for this? Poor kid, he did have a lot of trouble with those teeth and later he had a gold tooth.

Up on the hill west of our house stood a large barn. The owner had a number of horses, race horses. There was a race track a little farther west of the barn. At the very top of the barn was a cupola with windows so one could climb up and look out seeing all over.

One late P.M. Mother and I saw Bill come running down the road. He climbed over fences and soon we saw why the hurry. Mr. Rosier, who lived in town--a retired farmer-- had a little pasture in the block west of Main Street. He had just planted a row of little popular trees along the roadside and of course, Bill on his way home thought it fun to just straddle these little trees. But when Mr. Rosier saw him, he gave out a loud yell and took out after Bill. When Bill came to our barnyard he didn't stop but went on up the hill and climbed up to the cupola of the big barn. Well, our dad was in the barnyard and asked Mr. Rosier what was going on? Mr. Rosier told him, so Dad said "I'll take care of the boy." He told Bill if Mr. Rosier had ever caught him he would have beat him up something awful and too, how wrong Billy was and he should never damage or destroy any property of any kind. Mr. Rosier could straighten the trees but Bill had been very wrong in straddling these young trees. They were, of course, bent over. I'm sure from that time on, Billy was very careful not to ever damage anything.

One time I remember Billy was lost. We couldn't find him any place. Mother had me looking in all of the buildings. She took a rake and felt in the big water tank. Then one of the men working for my father came down the hill. He said as he was walking through the cornfield, he saw a little boy sleeping in the corn rows so he picked him up and "here he is."

One time Billy was very sick, he had pneumonia. We were all very worried about him. Dear Dr. Burford spent several nights with our parents watching over him. When he finally was better and able to sit up in bed.

Dad had several years before given Mother a beautiful sorrel driving horse. She was a former race horse named Babe. Babe had one colt, a lovely little dark bay. So Dad took this little colt to the window of Billy's room, opened the window, and said, "I'm giving this little colt to you." Right away Billy said, "I'll name her Pearl." She was a joy to all of the family. When older she was only used for riding and driving. Every kid in town managed some way to get a ride on Pearl.

When Bill grew older he always tried some way to make some money. He milked cows and was allowed to sell milk to several people in town. After milking every evening, he would fill the little quart buckets and take them to his milk customers. It did take some time before he realized a profit as he had to invest in the buckets. He would wait and have them empty the milk so he could have the buckets to use again.

One Christmas we were given $1.00 each to get gifts for the family. Well it was some work to make that one dollar get a gift for a family of 8 people and Auntie and Uncle Leasure! Bill outdid all of us. He went all over town and asked for a calender. We each received a calender from Bill with a Merry Christmas!

When Ferd and I were dating, there wasn't anything to do on Sunday but take a long walk or go horseback riding which we often did. He had a lovely black horse named Dolly and I would manage to get Pearl. The two horses seemed to like each other too. One Sunday P.M. we were riding along a country road when we heard another horse was behind us. I saw it was one of our farm horses. Old Maud we called her. Finally I turned around fast enough to see a rider on her back. Sure enough, it was brother Bill. We let him catch up and asked what he thought he was doing. "Oh, just thought I'd see what you were doing!"

My parents didn't want me to go to dances but I went anyway. One time we went to a dance in Axtell. The next day, Bill took a load of grain to the elevator in Axtell and went in to call on our good friend, Mr. Ingram in his hardware store. Mr. Ingram said, "I saw your sister at the dance here last night." Well, Bill thought he had something on me! He said when he was home, "I heard that you were at the dance in Axtell last night. Ha, Ha." Right then we made an agreement that if you don't tell on me, I won't tell on you! After Ferd and I were married and running the picture show in the Gay Theater in Wilcox, Bill and Grace sold popcorn. Sometimes when they sold out they would rush home to get more.

Bill graduated from Wilcox High School in 1917. I can see him yet as he sang a solo. I wish I could remember the title of the song. About that time he came to see me for help and he and both Grace and Mae often did. "Big Sister," Bill had been pressing a pair of trousers and scorched them, could I do anything about them? Only get another pair!

Soon after he was out of school he went to Lincoln, Nebraska to find work. He was successful and had work in a bank. Then a company sent him on a project down the Missouri River. Bill was sick there with malaria. The people there were careful and cared for him. He met some people who were driving out to California. They offered to take Bill along if he would do part of the driving. That was around 1922 or 23.

I will always miss Bill. He was kind to everyone, especially to young people. God bless his dear sweet soul.

Beverly Jordan Bride of Fount Herron Clark

BAYSHORE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH was the setting recently for the vow exchange between Miss Beverly C. Jordan and Fount Herron Clark, both members of the Young Adult Church and choir. Rev. Milton Gabrielson officiated in the presence of many guests.

The former Miss Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Jordan of 236 Quincy Ave., was given in marriage by her father and preceded to the altar by her sister, Janet, who acted as flower girl.

White satin with yoke of illusion on the sculptured bodice and lace bertha appliqued in satin, outlined in pearls and crystal beading fashioned the bridal gown. The bouffant skirt was styled with a bustle which extended into a train. Her veil of illusion was caught to a pearl halo. White roses and bouvardia centered with an orchid corsage composed the bouquet.

Miss Mary H. Ford, maid of honor, was dressed in old rose tissue faille with which she wore a matching net hat. She carried blue roses. Bridesmaids Miss Wanda Newman and Miss Carolyn Carpenter were in matching gowns of delph blue tissue faille with net hats. They carried American Beauty roses in arm bouquets.

Melvin Clark served his brother as best man. Niel Van Steenberg and Delwin Jones ushered.

A reception was given in the church parlor immediately following the new exchange when Joanne Chester presided at the guest book. After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will reside here.

Mrs. Clark, a graduate of Wilson High School, attended City College. She is a member of Job's daughters, Bethel No. 6, Mr. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Melvin Clark of 272 Park Ave., is a graduate of North Texas State Teachers College.

Mrs. Fount H. Clark

Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd:
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green
pastures; He leadeth me beside
the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me
in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art
with me; Thy rod and Thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou
annointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

declaring them to be worthy of graduation.

Mr. Frahm addressed the class and presented the diplomas following an address by the Rev. R. F. McDaniels. Dr. George E. Newell gave the invocation, and the Rev. H. Hoersch, the benediction. Music was furnished by the Lyric Glee Club and W. G. Hay sang a group of songs. Dorsey Baird played a pipe organ prelude and postlude.

The junior-senior banquet was held at the Mary Lanning Memorial Hospital on Wednesday evening at 8:30, Dr. R. G. Cressman presiding as toastmaster. Covers were laid for 20 guests, including the two classes and the faculty. The toasts were given by Miss Tipsword, Miss Eckberg, Miss Persell, Miss Schuebel and Miss Nesbit.

The fourth annual alumni dinner was held at the Clarke Hotel on Thursday evening at 7:30 with eighteen graduates of the hospital among the guests.

Following the commencement exercises at the Methodist Church, a reception was held at the nurses' home.

M.L.M.H. GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Five Young Women Complete Nurses Training—R. F. McDaniel Gives Address

The final event of commencement week for the Mary Lanning Memorial Hospital graduates was held on Friday evening at the Methodist Church when the diplomas were given to five young women by Thomas Frahm, president of the board of trustees.

The event was an unusually attractive one, the rostrum of the church being piled high with flowers sent to the nurses by their many friends. The graduates were Miss May Francis Jordon, Miss Luella Grace Brown, Miss Elsie Schuebel, Miss Hazel Jess Nesbit and Miss Ida Muriel Weis.

Three little girls dressed in white acted as ushers and stood beside the rostrum to hand each graduate as she entered the auditorium, a bouquet of flowers. Miss Suzanne Hoskins, superintendent of nurses, presented the class to Mr. Frahm.

Copy verbatim on this form the information you find in the various records or books as you do your research. (You will find differences in records.) Make a separate sheet for each search or each name or family on your line found in a search. Then, after information has been extracted from all sources, you may easily make comparisons of statements, judge value of each, and record correct data on a permanent form such as A1, F1, F3 or F6. See The Sixth Edition THE HOW BOOK FOR GENEALOGISTS for additional suggestions regarding the use of this sheet.

BETHEL METHODIST

Letter to Mary Blackstone Jordan from her husband A S Jordan
For some reason Grandfather Jordan didn't learn to write--he could read.
So we are sure he had someone write this for him.

November 8th 64

Dear wife once more i takd on opertunity to write you a few lines to let you know how I am geting along, I am just tolerable well at present and hope these few lines will find you all enjoying the same blessing. the weather here is plesant with the exception of some rain. I will just tell you what I have to do here. I have to drill twist a day. And I have stock gard twist since I have been here. I do my one cooking and washed once since I came here. It has been fore weeks since I left home and I have not heard a word from you since I left. I am very anxious to hear from you all. I have been very lonesome since I came here. Although I get along about as well as the rest of the boys. the officers and all the rest seem very clever, but after all it dont suit me as well as home does. but I low to pass off the time as well as I can, we are still under marching orders. I do not know how long we will stay here. but we are ready for a move enny time but we dont know wich way our move will be I have seen a great deal since I left home and expect if I live to see a great deal more this has been a very nice town here before the war but it looks very hard now. well I must bring my letter to a close as I want to write some to I. R. Jordan. I want you to write and answer this as soon as it comes to hand, and tell me all the perticlars so no more at present but remain your affectionate husband till death.

A. S. Jordan to Mary Jordan

This was written on the same letter

Dr Brother I take this oppertunity to write you a few lines to let you know how I am getting I am as well as comon and hope you are enjoying the same blessing I am a good menny hundred miles from home but I am standing it full better than I thought I would. We was at Chattanouga two days and nights. we could see from there on lookout mountain whare that grate battle was. and we could see mishionery riedy and a grate menny other places whare thare has been battles fought. This is the day of the election here, I have just been down and give old Abereham a hist we think old Abe will be elected without enny dout. Well, Isreal I want you to write and tend to things at home the best you can. I want you to write as soon as this comes to hand and tell me all the perticerlars. so no more at present, but remain your affectionate brother till death.

A. S. Jordan to I. R. Jordan Atlanta

Letters from Mary Blackstone Jordan to her husband Asa Shinn Jordan

CERTIFIED COPY OF FAMILY RECORD OF BIRTHS.

1917
SEP 10
AM

State of OHIO, County of MUSKINGUM, SS:

I, the undersigned a NOTARY PUBLIC, within and for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that I have before me the Family Record of Jesse Leasure and Sarah Rine Leasure father and mother of Sarah A. Jordan, who I examined in an applicant for pension as widow of Asa S. Jordan; that I have carefully examined and compared the same and that the following transcript is a true and correct copy of so much of said record as is found under the caption of

"BIRTHS:

"Jesse Leasure, Born November 18th. 1810."

"Sary Rine, Born November 24th. 1804, his wife."

Children.

"Betsy Leasure, Born August 9th. 1833."

"John A. Leasure, Born March 20th. 1835."

"Eliza Jane Leasure, Born January 25th. 1837."

"Mary Ann Leasure, Born December 31st. 1838."

"George W. Leasure, Born December 11th. 1840."

"Sary Ann Leasure, Born December 23rd. 1842."

"William Henry Leasure, Born June 27th. 1847."

The entries are found in a large Family Bible printed in the year 1867, as appears from the following copied from the title page:

"NEW YORK:"

"AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY,"

"INSTITUTED IN THE YEAR MDCCCXVI."

"1867."

The record bears no marks of erasure or alterations; is all apparently in the same handwriting and made soon after the year in which the Bible was printed or published; and from the appearance of the writing I believe the record to be a reliable one. I have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name officially and affixed my official seal at Zanesville, Ohio, this 6th day of September, A.D. 1917.

The first road surveyed through the township was the Zanesville and Marietta road. It enters on section six, and following the dividing ridge between Wills and Meigs creeks, it passes into Morgan county on section thirty-four.

The "Old Federal Trail" struck Meigs township on Asa Jordan's property, section twenty-five, crossed the Marietta road at Hollenbeck's tavern, followed down Guist's Fork and crossed Meigs creek on section thirty, thence passed into Blue Rock township.

Archibald Bowles built the first hewed log house.

The first frame house is believed to have been built by John P. Farrell, and the first frame barn by William Yanger.

The first brick house was erected in 1833, by Casper Hollenbeck, on the Zanesville and Marietta road, and used for a hotel. David DeLong now owns the property.

The first ground cleared, and orchard set out, were by Archibald Bowles. A few of the trees, or scions from them, are still standing in William Dunlap's field.

John Hammond was also an early cultivator of fruit.

Several persons claim to be "the first person born in the township," and the chronicler does not presume to decide the point.

The first marriage on record, is that of John Briggs to Mary Bowles.

Thomas Carlin was married to Margaret Hyatt, in 1819, and Samuel Davis to Elizabeth Mitchell, in 1821.

The first death was a child of Thomas Carlin.

For a long time after the settlement, there was no regular graveyard, but each family buried their dead on their own premises.

After the building of the Hopewell church, a cemetery was established at that place, which is thought to be the first in the township.

There was also a cemetery established at a very early day, on the northeast quarter of section four, near the Salem M. E. Church, and thought by some to antedate Hopewell burying ground.

The first school was taught by a Mrs. Harkness, on Wills creek, in the northeast part of the township, in 1813.

A tannery was built on "Collins Fork" on the northeast quarter of section twelve, in 1815, by Thomas C. Gilkison. He afterwards sold out to Chauncey DeLong, who operated the tannery for many years, and still occupies the premises.

The first tavern was kept by Casper Hollenbeck, on the Zanesville and Marietta road, situated on the northwest quarter of section twenty-three. He kept accommodations when the stage coaches ran through from Marietta to Zanesville, having located there in 1813.

The first store was kept at Lytlesburg, by John P. Farrell. It was a small affair, and scarcely served the name. Regular stores were opened about the same time at Lytlesburg and High Hill, by George Lytle and William E. Walker, respectively.

Benjamin B. Seamans was the first to manufacture wagons. His shop was on the Marietta road, on the northeast quarter of section ten, in 1816.

Levi Thomas was the first blacksmith in Meigs. He kept a shop on Guit's Fork, in 1820, and subsequently at Lytlesburg or Meigsville.

William Dye was the first distiller.

The first horse mill was erected by Jesse Fenton, in 1820.

The first gristmill was built by Joseph Reasoner, in 1823, on "Collins Fork," of Wills creek. This was a small mill with but one run of buhrs. About the year 1829, James McGlashen built a fulling mill on the southeast corner of section twenty. Cards were afterwards added, and the mill run for some years, by William Yanger. No trace of the mills now remain.

A sawmill was built by Jacob Onstott, in 1832, on a branch of Meigs creek, which is thought to be the first mill built exclusively as a sawmill.

TOWNSHIP ORGANIZATION.

The following "entry" is copied from the Commissioners' journal, dated July 13th, 1819:

"A petition was presented to the Commissioners praying a division of Rich Hill township. The Commissioners therefore erected the twelfth original surveyed township, in the eleventh range, to be a separate township called Meigs township. The qualified electors to meet at the house of Zoath Hammond, on the last Saturday of the present month, to choose township officers."

In pursuance of the above, the first election was held at the house of Zoath Hammond, on the northeast quarter of section nine. John Hammond and Llewellyn Pierce, were elected Justices of the Peace, and Jacob Wortman Clerk. Who the other officers were, is not now known.

The following list of Justices, for Meigs township, is copied from the records at Zanesville.

1832—Llewellyn Pierce and John Hammond.
1835—John Hammond and C. J. Gibeaut.
1838—Thomas Green and Llewellyn Pierce.
1841—Thomas Green and David Hughes.
1844—C. J. Gibeaut and Thomas Green.
1847—Matthew Fisher and William T. Mason.
1850—William McIntire and Matthew Fisher.
1853—Alexander Armstrong and Matthew Fisher.

1858—Alexander Armstrong and William T. Mason.

Shortly after the first election, the polls were moved to Richard Bush's, on section twenty-one; again to Charles Ewing's, on section ten, where they remained until 1855, when another move was made to the center of the township, which constituted the voting place until 1879, when, by a vote of the people, it was again moved; this time to Russel Bethel's, on the Marietta road.

"THE COLOR LINE."

Charles Lucas was the first colored man who voted in Meigs township, under the decision of the courts that a man who had more white blood than black in his veins, was entitled to vote. He voted in 1853, the Trustees being, William Shaw, Thomas Green and William Gallogly, but as he was understood to have voted with the regnant party, after some "tall" swearing the matter was dropped.

At the spring election, in 1864, Joseph Tate and several persons, of more or less color, offered to vote, but were refused by a majority of the Trustees, the Board consisting of William Dunlap, William Imlay and Israel Clark; whereupon Mr. Tate sued the Trustees. But before the cause came to trial, the fall election came off, and Mr. Tate and several others again offered to vote, and again were refused; the Board, at this time, consisting of Samuel Culbertson, J. J. Cline and Thomas Fenton. Mr. Tate proceeded to read the law under which he claimed to vote, when Mr. Fenton exclaimed: "Things have come to a pretty pass, when a white man must listen to a nigger reading law to him."

Suit was now brought by Aquilla Lett and four others, against the Trustees, for refusing their votes.

Tate's suit came before Judge Granger, in Zanesville, in February, 1865, when he obtained a verdict of $240.00 damages, against William Imlay and Israel Clark (Mr. Dunlap being exonerated, on the ground of his having offered to take Mr. Tate's vote), and the township paid the cost. The other suit was made up, by the Trustees paying all the costs.

Now, all that is changed. The colored man's vote is not only taken when offered, but is sought after, a fact which sufficiently vindicates the wisdom of the law, which granted the privilege.

VILLAGES.

The villages of Meigs township are small and unimportant.

Meigsville is situated on the southwest quarter of section twenty-seven, and was laid out by Gilbert Bishop, in 1840, and William Betz made an addition in 1846.

Stores were kept at various times by J. P. Farrell, George Little, James Hutcheson, John Hardesty and E. A. Dye.

It contains at present, one store, one post-office, one physician, two boarding houses, one blacksmith shop, and about a dozen dwellings.

Museville is a small hamlet, situated on Meigs creek, on the northeast quarter of section thirty, and contains one store, one postoffice, one wagon shop, one blacksmith shop and a few dwellings.

High Hill contains two stores, one postoffice, one Odd Fellow Hall and a few dwellings.

Zeno and Coal Hill each contain a post-office, store and blacksmith shop.

Stores—Meigsville, Elza A. Dye, proprietor; Zeno, William Ewing, proprietor; Museville, John Revenaugh and Joseph Trainor, proprietors; High Hill, William Gallogly and N. Chapman, proprietors; Coal Hill, Jesse Frazier, proprietor; Oak Grove, George Knight, proprietor.

CHURCHES.

Hopewell Church.—In the year 1830, the citizens of the southwest portion of the township, joined together and put up a meeting house, a frame, 30x40, on the land of Philip Yanger, (southwest quarter of section twenty.) It was used by all denominations until 1846, when the Presbyterians, becoming the more numerous, a church was organized by Rev. John Arthur, and the property deeded by Mr. Yanger to the society. There were, at this time, about twenty members. Robert Lyons and John Trainor were the ruling Elders.

This society continued until the Presbyterian church was established at High Hill, in 1878. The building is now occupied by the Methodist Protestant Society, but the title is still vested in the Presbyterians.

long, probably because the climate was too warm for "resurrectionists."

Dr. Joseph Register came to Lytlesburg in 1842, and remained until 1855.

In 1846, Dr. Charles Hurd settled in Meigs-ville (Lytlesburg), and still resides there, having a large practice and an excellent reputation.

Dr. James Gallogly located at High Hill in 1847, where he practiced fifteen years, and then removed from the township.

Drs. N. W. Spring and Lewis Marshall are young physicians, recently located in the town-ship, and are making fair bids for public patronage.

Moved post office and store to Wilcox <sup>June</sup> 1884
The village of Wilcox was incorporated July 21, 1886.
It took two days to move the house and store - it had been cut in half and was moved on sleds by 12 horses.
He was doing business within an hour of arriving -

From the Files of the Herald for January 9, 1897
W. H. Leasure is constructing an ice house for next summer. Wm. Lippstreu is doing the brickwork.

W. H. LEASURE, the subject of this biographical notice, is a native of Ohio, and was born 1847. His father, Jesse Leasure, was a native of Virginia, and was born in 1810. When a young man, he moved to Jefferson county, Ohio, and died there in 1898. He was a consistent christian, and was deacon in the Baptist church for a number of years.

His mother bore the maiden name of Sarah Rine, and was born in Maryland in 1804. When three years of age she moved with her parents to Ohio, where she died in 1886, the mother of eight children.

W. H. Leasure, the subject of this sketch, lived in his native state until thirty years of age. Coming in 1877 to Nebraska, he settled near Walker's Ranch, and located a homestead on section 27, township 5, range 16 west. After a residence there of six years, he moved to Keene and engaged in mercantile pursuits for a period of three years. In 1886 he came to Wilcox, where he again embarked in mercantile pursuits, at which he has since continued.

Mr. Leasure started out to make his way in the world in 1876. When he reached Nebraska, he had only five cents left, but by perseverance and industry he now has a stock which will invoice $6,000, and also owns a quarter section of good land.

Mr. Leasure married in July, 1876, taking for a life companion Miss Orpha Jordan, a native of Ohio. This union has been blessed with one child—George, born November 3, 1880.

When Mr. Leasure came to Wilcox there were only two families in the town. He was the first merchant in the place, and without interruption has continued to the present time, his trade increasing steadily with the growth of the place of his adoption. Although constantly employed in the details necessary to the success of a large and flourishing business he has also held a number of local offices, having been justice of the peace and town treasurer for a number of years. As one of the thoroughgoing business men, enterprising and public-spirited citizen of Wilcox, Mr. Leasure takes high rank, and in an eminent degree holds the respect and confidence of its citizens.

In politics, he is a hearty supporter of the republican party. Mr. and Mrs. Leasure both hold membership in the Methodist Episcopal church, and take an active interest in all church work.

CERTIFIED COPY OF FAMILY RECORD OF BIRTHS.

RECEIVED
SEP 10 1917
NOTARY

State of OHIO, County of MUSKINGUM, SS:

I, the undersigned a NOTARY PUBLIC, within and for the County and State aforesaid, do certify that I have before me the Family Record of Jesse Leasure and Sarah <sup>Rine</sup> Leasure father and mother of Sarah A. Jordan, who I am informed is an applicant for pension as widow of Asa S. Jordan; that I have carefully examined and compared the same, and that the following transcript is a true and correct copy of so much of said record as is found under the caption of

"BIRTHS:

"Jesse Leasure, Born November 18th. 1810."

"Sary Rine, Born November 24th. 1804, his wife."

Children.

"Betsy Leasure, Born August 9th. 1833."

"John A. Leasure, Born March 20th. 1835."

"Eliza Jane Leasure, Born January 25th. 1837."

"Mary Ann Leasure, Born December 31st. 1838."

"George W. Leasure, Born December 11th. 1840."

"Sary Ann Leasure, Born December 23rd. 1842."

"William Henry Leasure, Born June 27th. 1847."

The entries are found in a large Family Bible printed in the year 1867, as appears from the following copied from the title page:

"NEW YORK:"

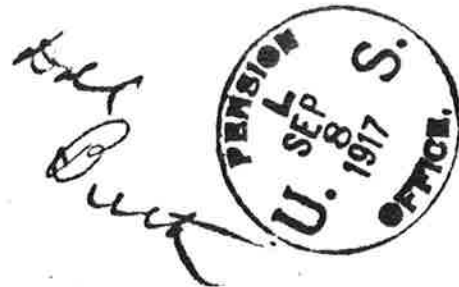

"AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY,"

"INSTITUTED IN THE YEAR MDCCCXVI."

"1867."

The record bears no marks of erasure or alterations, is all apparently in the same handwriting and made soon after the year in which the Bible was printed or published; and from the appearance of the writing I believe the record to be a reliable one. I have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name officially and affixed my official seal at Zanesville, Ohio, this 6th day of September, A.D. 1917.

Salem Methodist Episcopal Church.—The aggressive missionary spirit of pioneer Methodism was here, as elsewhere, manifest in the early formation of a "class."

In 1820, John Crawford was appointed "leader," and a class formed with the following persons as members:

John Crawford, and Sarah, his wife, William Gallogly, and Frances, his wife, Aaron Foster, and Rebecca, his wife, Patrick McCullough, and Sarah, his wife, Ambrose Joselyn, and wife, Jonathan, and Sarah Lawrence, William and Sarah Roxwell, Mrs. French and daughter, Mary, Priscilla Howell, Elizabeth Wharton, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

In 1830, a meeting house, a frame, was built, which stood until 1853, when a new frame, 40x50, was erected, on the southwest quarter of section three.

Present number of members, seventy-five.

Leaders—John Harris, and James Herron.

This is the oldest society within the bounds of the township.

Lytleburg Methodist Episcopal Church.—John Hardesty and his wife, Sarah Ann, John Carrell and wife, David Cline and wife, Samuel Hurliman and wife, Parker C. Gorrell and wife, Mr. Gordon and wife, and Jemima Priest, were members of the first class.

Parker C. Gorrell was Leader, and John Hardesty, Steward.

The church, a frame, 26x36, was built in 1854.

Present number of members, eighty-four.

Leaders—Crawford C. Wilson, and M. Reed.

Stewards—Jesse Wilson, and William Ross.

Pastor—Rev. John Doan.

Pleasant Hill M. E. Church (Colored).—In the year A.D. 1824, Rev. Mordecai Bishop preached in the southeast corner of the township, and formed a class at Lazarus Marshall's.

The members of that class were: Lazarus Marshall and his wife, Mary, David Blackburn and wife, Arthur Ginn and his wife, Mary, James Mitchell and his wife, Mary, James Guy and his wife, Deborah, William and Mary Guy, and Elizabeth Blackburn.

Arthur Ginn was Leader.

This society was composed of both whites and blacks; the meetings being held at private houses, until 1836, when a hewed log church was built, on section twenty-four, called "Wesley Chapel," and all went well for awhile. But as the society grew in numbers, "vile self got in." Some of the white members of the congregation entertained conscientious scruples against worshipping in the same house with the colored members, and particularly against partaking of the Eucharist at the same table.

Much dissatisfaction and not a little trouble, (to put it mildly), arose from this cause; when, for the sake of peace, twenty-three of the colored members withdrew, in 1843, and built a hewed log church, 24x30, on section twenty-three, for themselves, which stood until April, 1854, when it was burnt. In the spring of 1857, a frame, 28x32, was built on the same ground, and is still standing, (called "Pleasant Hill" Church.)

After the withdrawal of the colored people, the society at Wesley Chapel went gradually down, and, the property falling into the hands of a Mrs. Tate, the Church was torn down and transformed into a dwelling.

The congregation at "Pleasant Hill" is rather small at the present time and has no settled pastor.

Ark Spring Baptist Church.—In the month of January, 1852, Rev. Thomas Shepherd held a series of meetings in school house No. 5, in Meigs township, at which meeting several persons were baptized into the fellowship of the Rich Hill Church, and the following spring Rev. J. Winters, assisted by Rev. Benjamin Thomas, pastor of the Brookfield Church, held a meeting at school house No. 6, and baptized several persons into the fellowship of the Brookfield Church.

At the above named meeting, seven members of the Rich Hill and Brookfield Churches were formed into a society, called the western branch of the Brookfield Church, and J. C. Moore was elected clerk.

In 1853, a frame meeting house, 30x40, was finished at a cost of four hundred dollars.

Rev. Benjamin Thomas preached for this branch of the Brookfield Church until he was succeeded by Rev. Edward Jones, in the spring of 1853. Rev. Warwick succeeded Jones, and was himself succeeded by Rev. A. J. Buell, who continued as pastor until the western branch was organized into a separate church.

At a meeting held June 25, 1859, it was resolved to "form a separate organization on the Saturday preceding the fifth Sunday in July."

In pursuance of this resolution, a committee composed of Rev's. William Sedwick, A. J. Buell, and Washington Glass, with Deacons Jesse Leasure, John James, and Thomas Moore, met at the time indicated, and organized the branch into a regular church, called "Ark Spring Baptist Church," with Rev. W. Glass as pastor; J. C. Moore, Clerk; William Brown, Treasurer; J. C. Moore, William Brown, and Wm. Watson, Trustees; Jesse Leasure, Deacon.

The following are the constituent members of the Ark Spring Baptist Church:

J. C. Moore, William Brown, William Watson, J. W. Watson, Jacob Gallogly, David Babb, John Frazier, Horace James, Ulysses Frazier, Jesse Frazier, W. T. Hollenbeck, J. A. Brown, Eliza James, Mary J. James, Rachel James, Mary Frazier, Francis Bethell, Mary Bethel, J. A. Riddle, Nancy Riddle, Rebecca Ewing, Miranda Ross, Margaret Graham, S. A. Leasure, Mary Leasure, Rachel Graham, Jane Rogers, Eleanor Mitchell, M. C. Hatton, C. G. Hatton, Maria Brown, Annie Kennedy, Margaret Brown, R. A. Hollenbeck, F. A. Brown, Nancy Moore, Isabella McClurg, M. S. McClurg, Margaret Kennedy, Isabella Kennedy, Espey Watson, Minerva Baldwin, M. J. Marshall, Jane Marshall, A. C. Marshall, Clara Bethel, Lucy Bethel, Harriet Crawford, Betsy

Leasure, Sarah Leasure, Miriam Babb, Sarah Benjamin, Lucy Crawford, L. A. Armstrong, John McIntire, Jacob Hayden, Hannah Mitchell, Andrew James, Julian Mitchell, Susan Fisher, Victoria Wortman, Jesse Hyatt, Celia Lett, Rachel Armstrong, Jesse Leasure, Hannah Hayden, Louisa Hayden, James Kennedy, Mary Armstrong.

The names of the ministers, who have served as pastor, are as follows: Rev. Washington Glass, Rev. George Jones, Rev. Washington Glass, Rev. G. W. Churchill, Rev. James Herbert, Rev. Henry Ward, Rev. Thomas Erwin, and James Herbert, the present pastor.

Present Clerk—J. C. Moore.

Present Deacons—John James, Jesse Frazier, and Jesse Leasure.

Present Trustees—J. C. Moore, and John James.

Present Treasurer—David McClurg.

Present number of members, ninety one.

SCHOOLS.

The history of the schools in Meigs township furnishes a striking proof of the strength of the prejudice against the descendants of Ham, that formerly existed in this locality, as the following incidents will illustrate:

In the year 1845, there lived in the southeastern corner of Meigs township a colored man (a quadroon) named Aquilla Lett. This man owned a good farm, and, paying a good round tax, naturally enough conceived the idea of educating his children. With this idea in view, he sent his daughter, Margaret, then twelve years of age, and his two younger children, Henry and Susan, to the district school.

The news soon spread like wild-fire that there were "niggers in the school," and the Directors (Jacob Wharton, David McCarty and Burr Reed) ordered the teacher, Miss Louisa Harmon, to put the "niggers" in a corner by themselves until a meeting could be had. The teacher attempted to comply, but Margaret refused to be separated from the other scholars, on the plea that she "was not a nigger."

The next day the Directors came and ordered the teacher to separate the scholars, as per previous instructions. The teacher then refused, on the ground that Mr. Lett's children were attentive and orderly, and she would not disgrace them by any such unenviable distinction. She also refused to point them out.

Mr. McCarty, after some parleying, addressed Margaret with, "Say, my gal, ain't you one of them?"

Margaret inquired: "One of what?" "Why, Africans." The rejoinder was: "No sir, I am as white as you are." Mr. Wharton then attempted to pick out the offending niggers, but unfortunately got hold of McCarty's daughter (about the size and age of Margaret), when McCarty interfered with: "Hold on, that's my gal."

McCarty next essayed the difficult feat, and got hold of Wharton's daughter, when Wharton exclaimed "his gal." This rather disconcerted the directors, but something had to be done, and as the teacher refused to "put the niggers on the jim crow seat," she was dismissed and another employed, named Eliza Wood.

The white children—instructed, no doubt, by their parents—inaugurated a system of persecution and intimidation, to drive the Lett children from the school. But Margaret was plucky, and when any of the scholars tried to frighten her with clubs she would herself pick up a club, and resolutely charging, put the enemy to flight.

The Directors came frequently to the school and dismissed the same, but as often set the teacher to work again, thinking, apparently, that Mr. Lett would refrain from sending his children.

One old man visited the school and informed the teacher that "niggers did not need any teaching, as they had no souls."

Previous to this time, one school house had been torn down and another burnt, to prevent the colored children from getting an education, as "niggers knowed too much already."

Mr. Lett, being threatened with the destruction of his property, concluded to appeal to the law for protection in the exercise of his rights: accordingly, in December, 1846, he sued the directors, before Matthew Fisher, for debarring his children from the public schools. Colonel C. J. Gibeaut, counsel for Lett. Verdict for plaintiff.

Whereupon a separate house was built on the land of J. Lett, and a separate fund created for the purpose of schooling the colored children. This house was rebuilt in 1853, and in 1864 a good frame was erected, in which the colored children—fifteen or twenty—are still taught. Since 1856, the colored people are allowed to choose their own Directors.

POSTOFFICES.

Meigs township was, for a long time, without any regular postoffices, the inhabitants going to Cumberland and Duncan's Falls for mail.

In the year 1845, offices were established simultaneously at High Hill and Meigsville (Lytleburg), with C. J. Gibeaut and William Betz, as Postmasters.

The Museville office was established in 1853: Henry Onstott, Postmaster.

"Zeno" was made an office in 1862: Edward Bethel, Postmaster.

Coal Hill in 1876: Jesse Frazier, Postmaster.

The present Postmasters are as follows:

High Hill—Frederick W. Fort, Postmaster.

Meigsville—("Young Hickory") Peter Henry, Postmaster.

Museville—John Revenaugh, Postmaster.

Zeno—Edward Bethel, Postmaster.

Coal Hill—Jesse Frazier, Postmaster.

PHYSICIANS.

The first physician who practiced in Meigs township, was Dr. Clark, who resided in Morgan county. After him, came Doctors Dalton, Wilson, and some others, but they did not remain

MORGAN'S RAID.

William Ewing, Esq., furnishes the following reminiscence of Morgan's passage through Meigs township:

Thursday morning, July 23, 1863, the sun rose clear and bright, shedding his beneficent rays on the citizens of Meigs, who went as usual to their daily and peaceful occupations, little thinking of the approach of a hostile foe.

But ere the sun had reached his meridian height, the quiet and peace of the neighborhood were disturbed by the roar of cannon at Eaglesport, on the Muskingum River. Involuntarily, the question sprang to every lip, "What is it?" "What does this mean?" They were not long left in suspense. A cloud of dust was seen ascending from the highroad, in the southwestern portion of the township, and runners announced that John Morgan's rebel cavalry was in our midst.

The excitement that followed can be more easily imagined than described. "There was hurrying to and fro." Some were hiding their horses and valuables, while others, who thought themselves more brave, brought out their weapons, and prepared for a defensive warfare.

But, when the enemy came near, their courage failed, discretion took the place of valor, their small guns were secreted, and the owners sought positions as far removed from danger as possible.

Morgan, with his three hundred men, (which rumor magnified to a thousand), came into Meigs township from the southwest. Descending the hill to the forks of Meigs Creek, they met "Old Billy Dunlap," (as he is familiarly called), and demanded his horse, which he quietly gave up, taking off his saddle, when they informed him he must leave the saddle on the horse. But when one of the bareheaded cavalymen demanded his hat—Dunlap replied, "I'll be d—d if I give you my hat," and he didn't.

On the way to Zeno, they relieved Jesse Lease of one horse, J. C. Guist of two, and T. O. West of one. They struck the Marietta road at the old Stephens tavern stand, where they coveted a fine charger belonging to Mr. E. Stephens.

Here one of Morgan's men, who had been wounded in the back during their skirmish that morning with the Eighty-sixth Ohio Infantry, (that came from Zanesville to intercept them) at Eaglesport, could go no further, and was left. He was taken care of by the citizens and sent to Marietta.

It was near two o'clock in the afternoon when the raiders arrived at Zeno. Here they scattered in search of food for themselves and feed for their horses, appropriating everything they could find that a man or horse could eat, and taking all the horses they could get.

Having taken a horse from Mr. C. Fuller, they next repaired to the stable of Russel Bethel, then in the Union army, with the intention of capturing a very fine horse, belonging to that gentleman. But, before they could accomplish their purpose, Russel's mother had placed herself in the stable door, and barred the passage. They could not get the horse out without passing over her, so they were obliged to abandon the enterprise, and the horse was saved by the intrepid woman.

Morgan had taken a number of prisoners on his way west of the river, among them Col. Z. M. Chandler, Rev. Maccabee, and Judge Ezra Evans, of Zanesville. These gentlemen had gone out into Perry county to look after Morgan, but it seems he looked after them and kindly took them in. One mile east of Zeno they were paroled and permitted to return home, satisfied, no doubt, with their brief military experience.

John James, Jesse Frazier, and James McClelland, each lost a horse, while the "rebs" patronized Chauncey DeLong to the extent of three head, leaving, generally, however, their own worn out and broken down horses instead.

About four o'clock p. m. Morgan halted his command at C. H. DeLong's, on Collins' Fork, in the northeastern corner of the township, and his men commenced pillaging every dwelling, spring house and granary in the neighborhood. While this was going on T. Frazee's grocery was doing a "wholesale" business, supplying the thirsty Johnnies with whiskey.

Copy verbatim on this form the information you find in the various records or books as you do your research. (You will find differences in records.) Make a separate sheet for each search or each name or family on your line found in a search. Then, after information has been extracted from all sources, you may easily make comparisons of statements, judge value of each, and record correct data on a permanent form such as A1, F1, F3 or F6. See The Sixth Edition THE HOW BOOK FOR GENEALOGISTS for additional suggestions regarding the use of this sheet.

John Jordan, deceased,

The State of Ohio, Muskingum County, ss.
Court of Common Pleas, April Term 1847, to wit April 16th 1847.

The last will and testament of John Jordan late of Muskingum County deceased, was this day produced in open Court, and duly proved by the oath of David Blackburn and David McCarty, the two attesting and subscribing witnesses thereto, whose testimony was reduced to writing and filed, and it appearing to the Court from the testimony aforesaid, that the said testator, at the time of executing his said last will and testament, was of full age, of sound mind and memory and not under any restraint, it was ordered that the said last will and testament, be and the same is hereby admitted to probate, and that the same together with the testimony so reduced to writing and filed as aforesaid be recorded. Whereupon it was ordered that letters testamentary should issue to Orpha Jordan the executrix in said will named, who being in open Court accepted the said trust, and entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penal sum of three hundred dollars, with David Blackburn and David McCarty, her sureties conditioned according to law which said bond and sureties are approved and accepted by the Court. Ordered that David McCarty, Thomas Elliott, and James Dyer appraise the personal estate of the said testator.

Will

In the name of the Benevolent Father of all I John Jordan of Muskingum Co. of Ohio do make & publish this my last will & Testament.

Item 1st. I give & devise to my beloved wife one third of the real and personal property during her natural life that I may be possessed of at my decease in said County in State of Ohio also all my household furniture which furniture she is to have the disposal of at her own will as she may see fit at her decease

Item 2<sup>d</sup>. I devise & bequeath to my two youngest sons David & John Jordan the farm that I now live on together with the farming utensils to be equally divided between them at their mothers death by them complying with the following requisitions to wit by them paying to Mary Newman, Margaret Blackburn & Rebecca Jordan ten dollars each & also to give to Joseph & Thelma Jordan each a three year old calf & ten dollars a piece to be paid at their mothers death.

Item 3<sup>d</sup>. I devise & bequeath to my son, Sarah Jordan that piece or parcel of land known by the name of the Parman place together with all the appurtenances thereto belonging to have possession of it on the first day of April next. The said Sarah Jordan is to pay to her mother ten dollars a year in natural life time and then to each of the following named children to wit Elizabeth, Miss Charles Jordan, Sarah, Ann, Mount, John Jordan the sum of ten dollars each to be paid at her mothers death. I do hereby nominate & appoint my beloved wife Opelia Jordan Guardian of my three younger children to the full age of age & also to see that this <sup>my last</sup> will & testament be put into execution & hereby empower her to compromise adjust release & discharge all debts in such manner as she may deem proper. I do hereby revoke all former wills made by me.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my my hand & seal this nineteenth day of January A.D. 1847.

Signed & acknowledged by the said John Jordan his last will & testament in our presence and signed by us in his presence.

Copy verbatim on this form the information you find in the various records or books as you do your research. (You will find differences in records.) Make a separate sheet for each search or each name or family on your line found in a search. Then, after information has been extracted from all sources, you may easily make comparisons of statements, judge value of each, and record correct data on a permanent form such as A1, F1, F3 or F6. See The Sixth Edition THE HOW BOOK FOR GENEALOGISTS for additional suggestions regarding the use of this sheet.

[illegible]

Will that was not what well
I will just say that there is good deal of sickness in here

Regiment and there has been some

They has died and there is some more that there is not much hope

For they have the typhoid fever and about the half of the Regiment has the fever about

Half of here really is fit for duty
Will you tell you what for

I duty is half to show well as here and good deal of quelling to do us

Have to stand guard 4 days out of week and you may see that it is spreading it on pretty thick this warm weather for there is good deal of fever here to get well & fasten on

And this morning well enough of that more about old

Will something about the army
Well everything looks pretty strong it appears that the rebels sticks to stay it only well

There is a right smart of desertion from the rebels extracting in here and say that they are withdrawing from Washington City but about thirteen miles north of that well

Well tell you how we live here well

We have coffee and pork or saw. belly and the boys eat it and some rice and Hard back well it is hard back for we live well we can make out

To eat it when we seek it out

And when we have got here the pretty near well out on the front we don't look much like of the war would be over say more at that we are gaining & are on them if grant is successful

Jordan & Hulquist Mental History

Notes by Richard Hulquist August 20, 2015

Four family members have been thought to be possibly mentally retarded (AKA intellectually disabled):

1) George Leasure, the only child of Orpha Jordan Leasure. He couldn't read or write, didn't attend school, could perform only simple tasks, and lived an apparently healthy life into adulthood. He knew all the store customers and was very pleasant.

George was said to have been a "Blue Baby" at birth. The lack of oxygen supply to his brain would cause the brain damage typical of cerebral palsy. It seems that George had cerebral palsy but perhaps he wasn't actually a blue baby, but simply retarded.

2) Michael Jordan, born 1886, the son of Asa and Mary Jordan. Inez Jordan saw him in 1908 and he appeared to be mentally retarded. His speech was very poor, but he was pleasant and happy.

3) Ralph Jordan, son of I H and Ida Jordan, was born in Wallace, NE, in 1889. He was sickly early in life and later had epilepsy with grand mal seizures and loss of consciousness. He went to the Wilcox public school only for 3 years, perhaps because of the seizures and also had to stop going to church because the seizures were so disruptive.

Ralph had a normal appearance. He was quiet and mild-mannered. He became a strong boy and helped work on the farm. But he began to resent his father and would attack him. A close family friend, Dr. William Burford, head of the State Home for Retarded, advised that Ralph be committed there and he would arrange Ralph to work as the nurseryman. This was successful. Ralph liked his job and seemed to be happy whenever we visited him. He died at age 51.

Ralph's mental condition seems have been due to grand mal epilepsy.

4) Don Jordan Hulquist, my brother, was born in 1927. He was healthy but was mentally retarded with an I Q in the 80s. Ferd said that one pediatric neurologist agreed with mental retardation diagnosis, but thought that Don additionally had some other form of mental disease. Don later did also have severe paranoid schizophrenia.

Don started to become much more difficult around age twenty, frequently hiding or running away. He would frighten people, start fires and break windows. Dr. Burford convinced his parents to put Don into the NE State Home. He later was placed into a group home in Kearney. He seemed to be doing okay but the group home managers said that he was too sedated from taking two powerful medications, Thorazine and Stellazine. They gradually stopped the drugs and Don seemed fine for a many weeks.

One night an emergency call told me that Don was having a complete psychotic breakdown. He was screaming and breaking down the walls of the home trying to escape from the "Secret Service." A psychiatrist in Grand Island diagnosed schizophrenia, and this explained why Don had been on the antipsychotic drugs. He was put on newer medications and was improved greatly. He had another severe relapse of his schizophrenia a few years later requiring a long stay in a mental hospital. He eventually got back to his group home where he lived happily. He died suddenly of cardiac arrhythmia at age 73.

I had a chromosome analysis on Don when it became available. The results indicated an indefinite genetic mutation similar to Klinefelter syndrome or a variant. The syndrome is caused by an accident at conception where a male gets an extra copy of the X chromosome. It is not inherited.

In summary, there are probably 2 instances of mental retardation (one not familial), 1 of cerebral palsy, and 1 of epilepsy.

I did a brief medical survey about the combination of mental retardation and schizophrenia. The following summarizes it:

“The coexistence of oligophrenia [mental retardation] and schizophrenia has long been recognized and is described in the European literature under the term ‘propf schizophrenia’.”
There is considerable medical literature on this subject. Some authors note that mental retardation may be caused by the early emotional deprivation caused by schizophrenia, but this appears to be very unlikely. [Irwin J Klein, M D; JAMA 183:230, July 19, 1963].

In Don’s instance, the occurrence of retardation and schizophrenia together would likely be accidental because his retardation defect would be present at birth. I’m not aware of other schizophrenia cases in the Jordans. Please email if you know otherwise: crh@ucla.edu.

Serious depression was present in two Jordan family members when they were younger, but both seemed not to be affected later in life.
